

English

- Read Chapter 4 of The Lost Myth of Mathos on Purple Mash.
- Test your knowledge of the chapter by answering the brain-busting questions on Purple Mash.
- The chapter finishes with Mathos and Sariena on their way to defeat Chrysaor. Do you think that their plan will work? What problems might they encounter? Maybe the kraken will make another appearance. Write the next part of the story. You can record your ideas on the Purple Mash activity set for this week.
- Look at this sentence from the story. Pegasus' huge wings thrashed at the net and his hooves pounded the earth. Can you think of some synonyms that could be used in place of each underlined word? Write the sentence again using the synonyms you like the most.

Spelling & Reading

- Use the read, cover, write strategy to learn the words: arrive, continue, favourite, interest, opposite, question and thought.
- Practise these spelling by putting them into interesting sentences.
- Read aloud to an adult, putting on different voices for each character.
- After reading to an adult, ask them questions about what you have read.

Maths

- Look at a shop receipt and order the amounts of money from least to greatest.
- Measure colouring pencils in your pencil case and record their lengths in mm. Can you convert them into cm?
- Choose five 4-digit number. Order them from smallest to largest.
- Then choose two to add/subtract, using the column method.

Creative - Gods and Mortals

- Find out about ancient Greek gods using the activity set on Purple Mash. Can you make a fact sheet to show what you have found out? Don't forget to add some pictures.
- Can you invent your own Greek god? What would they look like? What powers would they have? Draw a picture to show your ideas and add labels or captions to show extra information.
