

English

- <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=jCQnUuq-TEE> Watch the link—it is a short video based on the Mexican 'Day of the Dead' festival. Write a story, poem or diary entry based on the video. Remember to include varied sentence types and a range of punctuation.

- Write a set of instructions for making your Mayan mask. Include equipment needed, as well as diagrams that visualise your instructions.

Grammar and Spelling

- Find out the meaning of these 3 words and then use the words accurately in a sentence:
Culture, festivities, native.
- What is the difference between direct and indirect speech? Try writing using both. Remember to punctuate it correctly.

Maths

- Use items in your house to create ratios and ratio problems. For example, there are 3 bananas for every 2 apples in the fruit bowl. If there were 60 fruits altogether, how many apples would there be?
- <https://nrich.maths.org/10334> Use this website to find an investigation or a game that you can complete with someone in your family. Make sure you look at all possibilities before choosing one.

Reading

- Write a mini-saga (100 words exactly) about the book you are currently reading. Try and summarise the whole story, or up to where you have reached so far.
- Read a book to a younger family member, allow them to choose the book and where it happens! Alternatively, record yourself reading a book for a younger child. Think about the expression you use and the tone of your voice.

Creative - Hola Mexico

Find answers to the following questions regarding Mexico:

- What is the population of Mexico?
- Which countries does Mexico share a border with?
- Which oceans surround Mexico?
- What is the highest mountain in Mexico?
- What is the longest river?
- How far from Wombourne is Mexico City?
- Which languages are spoken in Mexico?

Learn some Spanish - challenge yourself to count in Spanish or learn the days of the week!

